

Brigadier General Michael C. Flowers, USA
Commander, Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command

Brigadier General Michael C. Flowers graduated from University of Kansas in 1977 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in History. In 1997, he earned a Masters Degree in Public Administration from Shippensburg University. He is also a graduate of the U.S. Army War College.

Brigadier General Flowers has held a variety of command and staff positions throughout his 28 years of service. He has also deployed to multiple military operations including Operation Urgent Fury (Granada); Operations Desert Shield and Storm (Saudi Arabia); and Operations Restore and Uphold Democracy (Haiti).

Brigadier General Flowers' most recent assignment was as the Chief of Staff, NATO Kosovo Force (KFOR), Pristina, Kosovo, from July 2004 until June 2005.

In July 1997, he assumed command of the 18th Aviation Brigade (Corps) (Airborne), XVIII Airborne Corps, Fort Bragg, North Carolina. In July 1999, he relinquished command and served as the Chief, Operations Plans Division, J-3, United States European Command, Stuttgart, Germany. Brigadier General Flowers then assumed the responsibilities of Director, Center of Army Leadership, U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, from August 2001 until June 2003. From that assignment, he became the Director, Human Resources Policy Directorate, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-1, United States Army, Washington D.C.

Brigadier General Flowers' personal decorations include the Defense Superior Service Medal, the Legion of Merit (three awards), the Bronze Star Medal, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal (four awards) and the Air Medal. He also possesses the Senior Army Aviator Badge, the Master Parachutist Badge, and is Ranger qualified.